

2017 MIDTERM MADNESS CARE PACKAGE EVENT

Before you know it, your student will be taking midterm exams. Let your son or daughter know that you are thinking about him/her during MIDTERMS. This year BLU will be offering hand packed care packages filled with energizing goodies, items to help them study, as well as a personalized note from you, if you desire.

The cost of the Midterm Madness Care Package is $10.00 (please make all checks made payable to RHHS). Proceeds will help BLU fund community outreach activities, and purchase supplies and educational materials for our club. Your support is greatly appreciated! All orders must be placed by Thursday, January 19, 2017. Order forms may be dropped off in front office.

Send a small package of motivation to your student. Packages will be available for pick up Monday, January 23, 2017 outside the guidance office.
