

Course Placement Audition Information

The theatre program at River Hill High School consists of introductory and advanced level theatre classes. The two advanced level classes are Musical Theatre Ensemble and Theatre Company. If you have previous theatre experience, you can audition to be placed in one of these advanced courses.

Musical Theatre Ensemble: Grades 9,10,11,12 (Prerequisite: Theatre I or audition) Musical Theatre Ensemble explores musicals and theatre processes from a variety of time periods and cultures. In this course, students collaborate as a production company working as directors, lyricists, composers, choreographers, actors, designers, and technicians on theatrical projects. Students in this course will get to participate in class project performances. There is a GT option for this course.

Theatre Company: Grades 9,10,11,12 (Prerequisite: Theatre I or audition) Theatre Company explores plays and theatre processes from a variety of time periods and cultures. In this course, students collaborate as a production company working as directors, writers, actors, designers, and technicians on theatrical projects. Students in this course will get to participate in class project performances. There is a GT option for this course.
